The nasty traffic accident is not the end for Frank Feelman... Thanks to the mysterious scientist Doctor Potatoe, he is reconstructed and revived in a new super body! He has become NOGI – THE FANTASTIC CREATION! Suddenly he faces threats like a giant robot and his first supervillain rival; THE ENERGY SABOTEUR.

STEFAN HARRYSSON created the super hero Nogi in 1985 when he was part of the underground comic publisher SLAHAD COMICS GROUP. 2010 Daniel Lenneér shamelessly borrowed the figure in his series of ANGSTMAN, frankly, mostly because he looks funny. Readers, however, took the tragicomic hero in a mask to their hearts.

This is STEFAN HARRYSSON's origin Nogi story - all four parts - re-created by DANIEL LENNEÉR. This is the perfect start for new Nogi fans!
